

What's your unique technology working style?

Having the right tools to do your work is essential. But not everyone needs the same set up. Depending on your personality, type of work and how you like to get things done, your technology needs will be different to your colleagues'. Find out who you're most like – Novice Nina, Intermediate Ian or Expert Eric and see how you can take your set up to the next level.

NOVICE NINA

“Set up? What set up?”

Nina is flexible, has a great can-do attitude and gets the job done! She’s not that worried about ergonomics and having the latest technology.

How to tell you’re like Nina:

- ▷ You make do with your laptop, it works just fine!
- ▷ Sometimes you think about how it would be nice to have a mouse, just to make drag-and-drop easier.
- ▷ A monitor? You have enough space on your laptop – even though it would be nice to have three things open at once.
- ▷ You are too busy to think about your set up!

INTERMEDIATE IAN

“As long as it works,
it’s good enough!”

Ian likes to be prepared and comfortable at work, without going over the top. Ian has all the basics to do the work but could do with an upgrade.

How to tell you’re like Ian:

- ▷ You have a good set up but feel like you could have a better one that suits you.
- ▷ You sometimes feel slight pains when you work for long hours.
- ▷ You get annoyed when people can’t hear you due to your in-built microphone.

EXPERT ERIC

“I’d like everything to be optimised!”

Eric likes efficiency, streamlining and wants the tools to make his life easier. There’s always room for improvement.

How to tell you’re like Eric:

- ▷ You like to get things done, quickly!
- ▷ Compatibility is important, you prefer things to seamlessly work together.
- ▷ Cords and plug-ins? No thanks, you prefer wireless, AirDrop and Bluetooth.
- ▷ You like to research and compare to get the best features that will help you get more done.
